1. What are the major accomplishments of your historical figure?
2. How did your historical figure die?
3. What was the historical figure's strength & weakness?
4. How did the historical figure contribute to the success or weakness of their civilization?
5. Identify 5 characteristics of the historical figure and give specific examples on how they were demonstrated throughout his/her lifetime.
6. Did the historical figure help make the world a better place? Why or why not?
7. If the historical figure wasn't successful or popular at the time of their death, why are they so well known now?
8. Compare your historical figure with another historical figure from a different time period, describing how they are alike and different.

Modern-day Questions

DIRECTIONS: Choose three of the following prompts to answer. Provide a detailed explanation that fully responds to the prompt. Your answer must cite evidence from your research (1-2 quotes from a text). Your entire response should be no less than 7 sentences and no more than 10.

1. Given your historical figure's background and experience, how do you feel they would have responded to the question: "How would you go about solving problems with ISIS?"
2. Consider the strengths and weaknesses of your historical figure. What type of an American leader would he/she be in current times? How would he/she deal with terrorists and threats to our country's freedom?
3. What evidence can you use to prove that your historical figure would or would not have been interested in advancements in technology? (Such as STEM research, bionic arms, 3D printing, etc.) Give examples to prove your point.
4. If your historical figure were to participate in a modern-day presidential election, what reasons do you believe that the people of a country would or would not approve of him/her as president?
5. Given the characteristics and accomplishments of your historical figure, what modern-day career would they choose, and how would that influence their choice?
6. Describe how you think your historical figure would react to implementing STEM related classes and assignments in the classroom. Relate at least two experiences from your historical figures life to support your answer.
